

This is my fourth year at Halstead. Before I worked here I had some years away from teaching to be a full time mother. I have three wonderful children all at primary school age. My hobbies are things all creative. I really enjoy fondant icing novelty cakes & costume making.