

Mrs Troth

After many years of teaching around the world, including Australia, Japan and Spain, I am now lucky to be a teacher here at Halstead Community Primary School. I have taught here since September 2011 and have enjoyed becoming part of this wonderful village school. Singing with the staff choir at the school Christmas service each year, dancing as a pirate and dressing up as the Queen of Hearts for the local Knockholt Festivals and the whole school trip each year to the Sevenoaks Pantomime have been just some of the highlights of being part of Halstead CPS. Living and working in this part of Kent also gives me many opportunities to pursue one of my favourite pastimes- going on long country walks.
